THIRTY PROSE TRAILER

I just imagined what I remembered most about my father, whether it was real or not, and he passed away 25 years ago. I wrote this prose for my second short film, 'Thirty'. It was from the scene where the protagonist recited about her father.

Print out the next four pages, single-sided. Cut along border, make a hole at the round circles in the top/bottom of each page. Use a string to tie together each page.
